'Library Opening in Adopted Village'

On behalf of the National Service Scheme Department of the college, a library was started for the students of the village on the initiative of the students of the college on 25th August 2018 at Bhagirthikhar.

The main objective of this activity was to create interest in reading among students in rural areas and to do important work as a social commitment for the adopted village.

A total of 500 books are available in this library. It is being used by the villagers here.

Dharmaji Koli, a social worker of this village, provided a place to start this library. Also, the responsibility of managing this library was given to Dnyaneshwar Koli. The villagers appreciated this unique initiative of the National Service Scheme of the college.
